

Official Statement from the Malta Tax and Customs Administration about Tax refunds to the public from unofficial sites.

We would like to inform the public that the presence of websites which are impersonating or presenting themselves as the official website of the Malta Tax and Customs Administration has been noted. The topic is about your Tax refund. The notification refers to sites such as <https://mtca.im/mt> and <https://mtca.lat/mt>.

The official and only website of the Malta Tax and Customs Administration is <https://mtca.gov.mt>.

The public is asked to be careful and avoid providing personal information, payment details or any sensitive information on sites that are not official or verified.

Therefore, we urge the public to always verify that they are accessing MTCA's official site before proceeding with any online communication.

For more information, call Freephone 153 (ext. 06).

Thank you for your attention and cooperation.
